

Laravel Development Company

PHP or Hypertext Preprocessor is the most chosen programming language in the world to develop dynamic website development and web-based applications. PHP is a server-side scripting language and is embedded in HTML. It is the widely-used, Open Source and efficient alternative to other web development technologies. PHP technology works with framework and runs on a web server. Features like security, user-friendly, Speed optimization etc. PHP is independent language platform and is compatible with almost every web server. Ability of learning also gives PHP development a big edge. PHP makes the application highly usable and proficient.

Laravel:

Laravel is more popular than other PHP frameworks. It is an open source framework and enables developers to speed up web application development without increasing project overheads. It scores more than other frameworks in the categories of performance and scalability.

Key features of Laravel :

- New directory structure
- Route caching
- Authentication
- Multiple file system
- Unit testing is provided as an integral part of Laravel
- Template engine
- E-mailing
- Laravel framework Technology